Gerontology
SOCIETY OF IOWA

Membership Application

The Gerontology Society of Iowa

is a statewide association of people who are working, studying, or interested in the field of aging. Members of GSI share a common commitment to make Iowa a state which provides the highest quality of living for older people and a progressive environment for individuals working in the field of aging. The purpose of the organization is to facilitate the efforts of its members and to enhance the lives of older people.

GSI Accomplishes This By:

- Promoting the exchange of ideas and information and facilitating collegial relationships among its members through formal and informal forums.
- Promoting the growth of gerontological knowledge and research, and its utilization in areas of practice.
- Promoting education in aging.
- Advancing the knowledge of aging among the general public.
- Maintaining a vital and viable membership organization.

Membership Benefits

Annual Conferences / Meetings

GSI holds an annual educational conference in April that features keynote speakers and reports on statewide research, programs, and policy issues in aging. Continuing Education Units (CEU's) are available.

Opportunity for Involvement and Leadership

GSI provides opportunities for leadership and involvement to all its members through its standing committees, task forces, and other activities.

Opportunity for Personal and Professional Development

GSI promotes opportunities in the field of aging through a variety of educational functions.
